

I am playing the part of "Johnny The Baker." I am going to write the script for his part and also am going to voice his character. I am going to make sure that the parts I write and voice are produced in the final production and that the project is handed in on time. Other members of my group will assist in the editing of the project as we take turns.