

Leif Vollebekk

This is Artist Vignettes on Your Music Alternative.

An artist I really like right now is an indie singer/songwriter from Canada.

His name is Leif Vollebekk. What I appreciate about this artist is the simplicity in which he records the music with his band.

He records live to analog tape. Yes tape and not inside a computer! It's raw and it reveals the soul in his songs. I am drawn to the vibe.

This is Leif discussing why he records to analog tape and the song, Elegy, from his 2017 Album, Twin Solitude.
