

The worst of on-line reviews

In your groups I would like you to find a product, restaurant or service that had poor online reviews. They must be real reviews. I would like for you to create a project based around this concept. Maybe you can make this into a game show or something similar. The idea is yours, but you must have a high quality production. You will need to incorporate a voice over for sure, music, possible interviews with the reviewer etc. BE CREATIVE. KEEP IT CLASSY
